Privacy Policy

www.grace-abounds.org

This Privacy Policy explains how Grace Abounds Biblical Counseling, Inc. ("GABC," "us," "we," "our") collects, uses, and protects information when you visit and use www.grace-abounds.org (the "website"). Effective date: November 18, 2026.

We may update this policy from time to time. The current version is always posted on this page, so we encourage you to check back occasionally.

What Information We Collect

When you visit the website or make a gift, we may collect:

- Contact and gift information you give us, such as your name, email address, mailing address, phone number, and the amount and frequency of your gift.
- Technical information, such as your IP address, browser type, device, the pages you visit, and how long you stay.
- Payment information, which is entered directly with our payment platform (see "Donations and Payment Processing" below).

Why We Collect It

- To process your gift, send your receipt, and keep required donation records.
- To thank you and keep you informed about GABC's work. We send emails to our donors, and every email includes a way to unsubscribe.
- To respond to your questions and requests.
- To understand how people use the website and to improve it.

Donations and Payment Processing

Gifts made through the website are processed by Givebutter, a third-party donation platform. Your card or bank details are entered directly into Givebutter's secure system. GABC does not see or store your full card number or bank account information. Givebutter's handling of your information is governed by its own privacy policy and terms, which we encourage you to review.

Google Analytics and Cookies

We use Google Analytics to understand how visitors use the website, such as which pages are visited and how visitors arrive. Google Analytics uses cookies and similar technologies to collect this information, which is used in aggregate to improve the website. The website platform, Wix, and Givebutter also use cookies needed for the site and the donation form to work.

Cookies do not give us control of your computer. You can block or delete cookies in your browser settings (see the help pages for Chrome, Safari, Edge, and Firefox), though some parts of the website may not work as well. You can also opt out of Google Analytics by installing the Google Analytics opt-out browser add-on at tools.google.com/dlpage/gaoptout.

How We Protect and Share Information

We take reasonable steps to protect your information from loss, misuse, and unauthorized access, including relying on reputable, secure service providers. No method of transmission or storage is completely secure, so we cannot guarantee absolute security.

GABC does not sell, rent, or lease your personal information. We share information only with service providers who help us operate (such as Givebutter, our website host, our email provider, and Google Analytics), or when the law requires it.

Links to Other Websites

The website may link to other websites. GABC is not responsible for the privacy practices or content of those sites, and this policy does not apply to them. Please read their privacy policies.

Your Choices

- Email: you may unsubscribe at any time using the link in any email we send, or by contacting us.
- Your information: you may ask to see, correct, or delete the personal information we hold about you, subject to legal and record-keeping requirements (for example, gift records we are required to keep).
- Forms: you may leave optional fields blank if you do not wish to share that information.

Children

The website is intended for adults. We do not knowingly collect personal information from anyone under 18. If you believe a minor has given us information, please contact us and we will delete it.

Contact Us

For questions or requests about this policy or your information, contact:

Grace Abounds Biblical Counseling, Inc., 20010 Chartown Drive, Cornelius, NC 28031 · (704) 213-9890 · mike@grace-abounds.org